NEWS HIGHLIGHT

Holiday Kids Club

This week, St Bart's (in-person in Toowoomba), hosted 121 children and 50 volunteers, over 4 days of Out Of this World fun!

There was lots of singing, playing games, craft rotations, eating, drama, challenges, and pranks. Each day we were able to unpack a little more about how we have an amazing, almighty God who loves us.

Some of the best highlights were the rockets, zipline and gunya building. All of which were enormously enjoyed by everyone. Best of all was the sheer joy of witnessing the kids' passion for Jesus grow each day.

It was a great joy to also witness the growing connection with our Korean community. And, it was wonderful to have Michael and Lily Marklew join in with us, from our Brisbane church plant.

Holiday Kids Club would not happen without the help and prayer of so many. I'm so thankful for very generous, servant hearted people who gave their time and energy. People who prayed, baked, cut, built, mowed, cleaned, cooked, served, and worked in so many ways to help make the week happen.

Please continue to pray for the children and team as they recover from such a wonderful week together and pray in particular for those children who took a next step in their discovery of who God is and his love shown to them through Jesus.
